Strictly Sail© Pacific April 12-15th, 2012

WiFiHarbor is providing wireless Internet access for this show at Jack London Square. You can obtain this service automatically. Simply connect to the (wifiharbor) signal then launch your Internet browser. Your browser will be redirected to the wifiharbor log-in page. You can choose the "create an account" button and sign-up with your credit card. There will be two plans available: $7/day or flat rate $20 for the 4 day show. When you sign-up you create a unique user name and password. To log-in you simply enter your username and password (case sensitive) and you will gain access to the Internet. To log-out simply enter the following URL (<http://login.irisaaa.com/logout.php>) then choose "colubris" or disconnect your computer for 30 minutes.

Enjoy the show.
